Sponsorship

Dharma teachings are so incredibly rare and priceless. Even more rare are teachers who are authentic lineage holders and tantric masters. Meeting with a teacher and hearing an authentic transmission of Buddha dharma-- these opportunities are not easily found in this world. And yet, all of us have the incredible good fortune to have met Khensur Rinpoche and to hear his teachings, precious beyond all measure! Please help us by sponsoring these teachings; your donations enable us to continue spreading the Dharma in the future. You can elect to donate periodically or in any way suitable to you. If you wish to donate periodically, we will contact you to offer some approaches that might make donating in the future more convenient.
